

CLUB DE GOLF ALCANADA

Course Guide

Designed by renowned architect Robert Trent Jones Jr, Club de Golf Alcanada's 18-hole course opened in 2003. Situated in the northern part of the Mediterranean island of Mallorca, Alcanada is located right by the sea and the 6,499-metre lay-out blends naturally into the typical Mallorcan landscape.

The club takes its name from a nearby island just off the shore which, complete with its own lighthouse, can be seen from most of the holes. Apart from the splendid sea view, players are surrounded by pine and olive groves throughout their round and, even though a young course, Alcanada is already recognised by a number of well known golf magazines and golf guides as one of the finest courses in Spain and Europe.

Hole 1 • 458 metre par 5

This opening hole is a challenging par 5. Single handicappers should keep their tee shots to the right side of the fairway and then attack the green with the second shot, crossing the creek in front of the green. For those not so brave, lay up the second shot on the top part of the fairway to your left.

This 387m par 4 has a slight dogleg to the left. Although you are facing a narrow tee shot from the white tee, long-hitters should be able to play over the fairway bunker. The green should be attacked on the right side.

The third hole may be a fairly short par 4 at 335m but it can be deceptively hard with a blind tee shot. The fairway bunker on the left can be passed with the tee shot.

Hole 4 • 188 metre par 3

Like all par 3s on the course, this one offers an undulating, tricky green. Players should aim at the left side of the green to avoid the huge greenside bunker. This is the only hole on the course without a sea view.

Hole 5 • 376 metre par 4

Aim at the two trees and the target bunker on the left side of the fairway to avoid the hazard running along the right side of the hole. The shot into the green should not go through the back as the hazard comes around behind it as well. Aim to the left side of the green.

Hole 7 • 579 metre Par 5

Enjoy the stunning view from the back tee down the 579m long par 5. The typical Trent Jones bunkers in the middle of the fairway can be carried with the tee shot. Play a fade to the left side of this fairway and then attack the green with the second shot.

Hole 8 • 416 metre par 4

Rated as the most difficult hole on the course. Having to play through trees hanging over the fairway on the left side, the player faces an intimidating tee shot on this 416m long, uphill par 4. Keep the drive, and also the second shot, to the right.

Hole 9 • 397 metre par 4

Although you have to pass a creek on this par 4, the bigger problem is the tall tree on the left and the bunker on the right side of the landing area. It's better to attack the green on the right side. Watch out for the pheasants that have made their home in the hazard on the left!

CLUB DE GOLF ALCANADA

Hole 10 • 363 metre par 4

Another uphill par 4 marks the start for the back nine. This fairway is wide open. The key is the right club selection for the uphill shot into the green. You should take one more club than you anticipated for the second shot on this hole in order to reach the green and carry the greenside bunker safely.

Hole 11 • 554 metre par 5

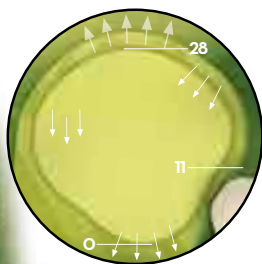

A fairly easy 554m long par 5. If you want to attack this hole, the drive should land on the left side of the fairway so you can try to reach the green in two, passing the fairway bunker on the left with the second shot.

This 347m long hole is not a long par 4 but because of the height difference, club selection is important. Play a high shot into the green. Once you have climbed up to the green, take a moment and enjoy the view over the bay of Alcudia.

Hole 13 • 514 metre par 5

The easiest hole on the course – if you keep your tee shot to the right. Once you have passed the bunker in the middle of the fairway you can attack this 514m par 5 even with a long iron or lay up for a short pitch into the green. On windy days you can feel salty spray coming across from the Mediterranean Sea on your skin.

Hole 14 • 167 metre par 3

The real challenge on this par 3 is when the flag is on the top part of this three-level green. You have to take one more club not to end up in the greenside bunker. Wind can be a factor in your club selection.

This par 4 looks fairly easy but only if you keep the drive on the left; then you have a proper angle to hit a high shot into the small, elevated and well-protected green. Avoid the big bunker in the fairway.

With 435m downhill, this par 4 is for the long-hitters. Keep the drive to the right to avoid the fairway bunkers on the left and then attack the tricky green on the left. On windy days, with a breeze coming from the sea, this hole definitely plays as a par 5.
